SWIMMING DUKE NOW HAS A RIVAL

Sam Kanoa, 16 Years Old, Has Good Start to Fame.

Hawaii has discovered another swin mingchampion who some day may out-rival even the famous Duke Kahana-moku. The youth in question is Sam Kahoa. 16-year-old native boy, who is an inmate of the Boys' Industrial subpoil an inmute of the Boys' Industrial school.

Kanos escaped from the school recently, and when his pursuers were almost upon him, plunged into the breakers and swam out through the surf six miles to sea before being captured. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon the pursuers put to sea in a sampan after the boy, but lost all traces of him. They feared he had either been drowned or eaten by sharks.

At about 4.45'clock they sighted an object a quarter of a mile ahead. They, made for it, and found Kanos swimming about in a leisurely fashion. As they neared him he dived coming up to feet away. The boy continued these tacties until he miscalculated and came up near the sampan. He was selard and hoisted aboard.

CINCINNATI, Ohio. Dec. 21 -August Hermann, president of the Cheinnati National league club, announced today that the Cheinnati team would train at home next spring, as the regular reason will mut start until May. The cultive month of April will be devoted to practice among the home team play-games will be arranged with several American league teams.

I do not see why we should send our team south in April, wign the weather is just as pleasant at home as it is in the South, said Hermann. It looks like both the National and American leagues will adopt a 140-game schedule, at the joint meeting in New York on Jan. 18, and this will mean that all the teams except those on assucest towns will spend the month of April at home practicing for the opening of the regular playing season. It will mean a great saying to the club owners.

LOADMAN VS. SHARKEY.

BALTIMORE, Md. Dec. 21. In the first sparring match in this city since the war ban was lifted, Jack Sharkey, of New York, and Ibek Loadman, of Lockport, N. Y. fought 12 rounds to a draw last night before a large crowd. Netther scored a knockdown. Sharkey started off with an advantage by his straight, quick blows, but this was counter-balanced by Loadman's body punches. Loadman was perceptibly tiring as the bout came to an end.

TECH TO MEET PITT.

ATLANTA. Ga. Dec. 21.—Dr. J. B. Crenshaw, faculty director of athletics at the Georgia School of Technology, announced today that arrangements had been made for Tech to play the University of Pittsburgh football team at Pittsburgh, again next fall. The date has not been definitely decided upon, but it will be either Oct. 18 or Oct. 25. Dr. Crenshaw stated.

THE GOODFELLOWS-ARE YOU ONE?

The Goodfellows are mobilizing. With Christmas on the threshold, they are assembling to guarantee that the thousands of unfortunate youngsters of Memphis will not suffer the pangs of the forgotten on Christmas morning. They are unloosing their purse-strings and are sharing their bounty with the little ones who, by an adverse whim of Fate, are unable to minister to themselves. They are availing themselves of the privilege to bring the spirit of the Yuletide into these tiny hearts, which, but for them, would be near the breaking point.

There is no tragedy with a more poignant hurt than that of the empty stocking. The great-hearted Goodfellows are going to prevent the sadness the disappointment and the disillusionment that would be inevitable if any one of the least of these should be forgotten.

There will be no empty stocking on Christmas morning. The Goodfellows will see to that. There remain but three more

The time is exceeding short. The honor roll of the Goodfellows is large.

R. C. Cubbon, Athletic Expert,
Says Southern to Get Many Army Players.

By Bob Pigue.

"Baseball and other sports have been of great value to the army, and if they are beneficial in an army camp they are beneficial in an army camp they are bound to be valuable to cities. Therefore, push baseball to the limit. Many a man doesn't know he has a city unless the town has a ball club."
The speaker was Robert C. Cubbon, department plysical director of the Army and Navy Y M. C. A. Southeastern department. Atlanta, who was in Memphis today as the guest of John D. Martin, president of the Southern league managers who have been assisting him the hoth were trying for commissions in the army.

Mr. Cubbon has had charge of all camps in the Southeastern department and has been in close touch with all future of sport, and says that every game is going to see a tremendous revival as a result of the world war and that the training in the camps will result in many men participating in the work.

E. S. Werts, principal, made a stirring talk, presenting the fact that 250 M. U. S. men were in the service when the armistice was signed. Coach Gilbert Schiess made a short talk in which he said he was delighted to have been associated with them. The team presented Coach Schloss with a diamond stickpin as a token of their esteem. Newton Perkins, retiring captain, and Don Lawrie, 1919 captain, made short talks, which were much enjoyed.

The football team of Memphis University school gathered around the festall board at the Gayoso last night and good fesiowship, delightful viands and oratory followed until a late hour. Bolton Smith served in the capacity of toasts master, and talks were made by the different members of the team.

Featuring the dinner was the talk and presence of Lieut. Frank Barnwell, who played end on the star grid team of M. U. S. in 1911, who is back from the world struggle with wounds of honor. Lieut. Rarnwell has been in the biggest game, where he hit the Hindenburg line hard, and contributed his share toward sending the Hun enwering home. Lieut. Southern league managers, and especially those who saw service with the army Y M, C. A. in the army cantonments throughout the Southeast, are getting busy digging up promising material from the ranks of the soldiers who are being released, and when the beil rings next spring it is certain that there will be a number of players on the roster of the various clubs who formerly starred on army clubs.

Charley Frank, of Atlanta; Carlton Molesworth, of Birmingham, and Kid Elberfeld, of Little Rook, were all engaged in this work. They are all good judges of baseball flesh. They have been keeping their eyes peeled for promising youngsters. When the season starts it is natural to assume that the trio will be able to line up a formidable array of ex-army talent which should make them flag contenders all the way.

The other clubs will be left in the shade in regard to army players, unless they get a move on, for Frank, Moley and Elberfeld will have ploked all the luscious fruit from the army clubs. There's time enough yet, and a little action on the part of Dixie leaders might prove beneficial to their flag chances next season.

It is with much pleasure that we inclose herewith our check for $25.25, which represents the contribution of the employes of our company. We sincerely hope that this money will bring as much pleasure to the homeless children of Memphis as giving it has brought to the contributors. Yours for a merry Christmas and a happy New Year, such as only Goodfellows know.—Employes Ellis-Jones Drug Co.

I'm inclosing $1, hoping it will help some. There are so many things to do these days with one's spending money— one really can't afford to slight any— thing, even if it is "long division," and every organisation gets/just a litle bit. This little bit brings my good wishes had a feeling of personal interest. Some day the sum might grow. Who can tell?

—S. J. H.

The children of Chestnut Grove school wish to share their Christmas money with other children that Santa might forget. They trust they will help your good cause in a small way and they all feel that their Christmas will be happler knowing they have helped others.

—Brownsville, Tenn.

I deem it a privilege to renew my membership in your club, and hope my small donation will bring Christmas cheer and help keep some home fire burning brighter. Godspeed your work for His less fortunate little ones.—A Goodfellow, Marion, Ark. Find inclosed a check for $2, for which we hope to gladden some poor little heart Christmas morning. We think yours a grand and glorious work.—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. T. Newbern, Tenn.

I am 3 years old and have learned to jig. I have received this money that way. I hope it will help to make some poor little boy or girl happy this Christmas.—G. K., Friar Point, Miss.

We send to the kiddles $5 for their Christmas cheer. May the good work go on until none of the poor will be forsotten. May God bless you and the kiddles.—N. C., Mrs. N. C. and M. S., Trenton, Tenn.

I hope this dollar will make someone happy on Christmas morning. I am a little boy 9 years old, and hope this will help to make some little child younger than I believe in Santa Claus.—F. M. C.

I take great pleasure in inclosing my check for $15 from a few Goodfellows of Tunica. This amount was collected in my Goodfellows jar which I placed on the soda fountain in our store. Wishing you much success and the best year ever.—Mrs. M. K. S.

Inclosed please find check, our annual subscription. While it isn't great, it is given with lots of love and sympathy, and to make some little tot happy.—Stella Review No. 1. Although I am a little girl with but one Christmas behind me, I can't let this, my second one, pass without doing my "little bit" toward helping to make some other kiddies as happy as 1 commencing at 12 o'clock noon, at the southwest corner of the courthouse.

SILK O'LOUGHLIN.

Baseball loses one of its most picturesque figures in the passing of Slik O'Loughlin, veteran American league umpire, whose demise was recorded in these columns yesterday.
O'Loughlin was one of the old guard of baseball, having been raised up as a lover of the great national game and having been connected with it for many years. He was without a doubt one of the most capable officials baseball ever knew. He was stern, but fair, and always could be counted on to give his decisions exactly as he saw them, regardless of the clamorings of the multitude.

The last time we saw O'Loughlin was sin St. Louis in 1917. He was always a drawing card with his cailing of strikes, balls, outs and fouls. Strike two was "Sthrike tuh," and ball two he used the "tuh" which made him famous. O'Loughlin was thoroughly capable, highly regarded by players, managers and league officials.

He was a credit to the game he served so long and so faithfully.
